

Tracker Corp Demonstrates Latest Enhancements to ImmigrationTracker Case Management Software at AILA Annual Conference

SAN FRANCISCO, CA – May30, 2011 Tracker Corp, <http://trackercorp.com>, provider of the immigration case management system used by three out of four of the top law firms who buy software, and developer of the most innovative solution for electronic Form I-9 compliance and E-Verify, will be exhibiting at the AILA 2011 Annual Conference on Immigration Law and unveiling the latest technology enhancements to its ImmigrationTracker software, at Booth 200, on June 15-18, 2011 in San Diego, California.

The Annual Conference of the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) is the foremost educational event, and the largest convention of the immigration law community. Tracker chose this venue to demonstrate its technology-leading enhancements in order to give as many immigration attorneys as possible a hands-on trial of the most popular and trusted tools for case management.

"We're proud to introduce Tracker to new or growing immigration law firms and other organizations at the AILA conference," said Brett Weiss, Tracker Corp CEO. "As the leading provider of immigration case management services to the immigration law community, we look forward to interfacing not just with new friends, but also with those whose input has helped make ImmigrationTracker the most complete solution for attorney and HR needs."

Tracker Corp provides software for immigration management, I-9 compliance and E-Verify. Used by more than 75% of the top immigration law firms who buy case management software (according to IndUS Business Journal and American Lawyer Media), as well as many Fortune 1000 companies, hospitals and universities, Tracker Corp products include ImmigrationTracker™ software and Tracker I-9 compliance software. Founded in 1998, Tracker Corp is privately held and based in San Francisco, CA. For more information, visit <http://www.trackercorp.com>.

###